

FESTIVAL KILTIR EK LANGAZ KREOL MORISIEN 2022

FKLKM has become a not-to-miss event for the local people and thus inevitable for the Ministry of Tourism to organise an event of such importance which can be heard in the music, felt in the rhythm and tasted in the food. Eventually FKLKM (previously known as Festival Internasional Kreol) has marked its 16th edition for the year 2022.

The Ministry of Tourism in collaboration with the Ministry of Arts & Cultural Heritage and MTPA hosted the Festival Kiltir Ek Langaz Kreol Morisien (FKLKM) under the theme 'Nou Langaz-Nou Repiblik' from 03 – 17 December 2022 with emphasis to revitalise the solidarity among Mauritians including all communities, hence preserving the Mauritian culture, languages, varied beliefs in its uniqueness to create the Mauritian identity. In overall, the whole event was well organised despite it was decided within a short notice.

FKLKM continued and maintained to evolve the promotion of new artists and talents, where, in no other event organized, so many artists are given the opportunity to demonstrate their talents as singers, dancers, musicians from Mauritius to interact, inspire and create a new awakening and unifying the Mauritian community, and at the same time demonstrating the authenticity of our culture which is in line with this Ministry's strategy for the promotion of cultural tourism.

The list of activities organised is as follows:

- Regat, Salon Kiliner, Expozision Artizanal ek Gran Konser
- Symposium* Lor Langaz Kreol Morisien
- Sware Poezi
- Bal Rann Zariko
